

The Arms Trade Treaty at 10 Project looks back at the first ten years of the ATT and provides recommendations to strengthen ATT implementation and universalization in the coming decade. The project brings together many of those engaged in the original treaty negotiations along with other key stakeholders that are responsible for current treaty operation and implementation. Looking back to move forward, the ATT at 10 Project will launch at the 10th Conference of States Parties in August in Geneva.

Scan for ATT at 10
website.

Speakers

H. E. Ambassador Vanessa Wood

Ambassador for Arms Control & Counter-Proliferation, Australia

H. E. Ambassador David Riley

Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the Conference on Disarmament, United Kingdom

H. E. Former Ambassador Peter Woolcott

Former Ambassador of Australia to the United Nations, Geneva (ATT Conference President 2013)

Rachel Stohl

Senior Vice President and Director of the Conventional Defense Program, Stimson Center

H. E. Ambassador Răzvan Rusu

Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Romania to the United Nations, Geneva (CSP10 President)

Tuesday, 20 August 2024,
18:00 - 20:00 CEST

CICG First Floor and Terrace

Reception